

CAREER OPPORTUNITY

Position Type	Senior High Social Studies
Contract	Maternity Leave
Start	August 28, 2017
School Name	Rundle College Academy
City, Province	Calgary, Alberta
Posted	May 30, 2017

Rundle Academy

Rundle Academy in Calgary, Alberta is an innovative, co-educational independent day school which operates a grade 4-12 program for students with learning disabilities. The school has quickly earned the reputation as being a national leader in the field of differentiation and accommodation for students who learn differently. All students at Rundle Academy have an individual program plan and follow provincial curriculum.

Rundle Academy prides itself in offering small class sizes with a big school experience, and as a result, there is a large offering of extracurricular opportunities for students of all grades. Students at Rundle Academy are encouraged to understand their potential and attain their personal best. With the support of parents and teachers, the students at Rundle Academy “Move Mountains”.

Position Description

Currently, we are seeking an energetic, empathetic, flexible, tech savvy Senior High Social Studies teacher for the 2017/2018 school year. Potential candidates must hold a valid Alberta teaching certificate and be qualified to teach in the Senior High. The ideal candidate will possess an undergraduate degree in English/History and experience teaching humanities at the Senior High level. A letter of application accompanied by a resume and the names of two references can be forwarded directly to the school’s principal, Mr Keith van der Meer at vandermeer@rundle.ab.ca